By Ophi Tandy

A 35-year-old member of Two children was slashed to death by her husband Raymond, a 35-year-old man, was charged with first-degree murder, a charge that carries a possible life sentence, in the slaying of his wife, in a case that is expected to go to trial in the next few weeks.

The body of Mrs. Helen, 35, was found in the living room and neighbors on the street called the police. The body was found in the living room at 2044 North 10th Avenue, with deep lacerations in the throat and no other injuries.

Several friends later told investigators that Raymond, 35, was a member of the "Black Panther" party and had been in the area of the slaying for some time. He was charged with first-degree murder, a charge that carries a possible life sentence, in the slaying of his wife, in a case that is expected to go to trial in the next few weeks.

Preston for Senator
Charles S. Preston, staff writer of The Recorder, is another Progressive candidate for the State Senate, it was revealed. Preston last year was a candidate for the Indianapolis School Board with the endorsement of the People's School Committee.

With Rev. R. T. Andrews as his running-mate, Preston conducted a vigorous campaign on the issue of abolishing segregated schools. Although the opposition spent 19 times the amount expended in the campaign by the People's ticket, Andrews and Preston received almost one-fourth of the votes.

Other Progressive candidates for State Senator are listed as William Barrett, 6471 Central avenue, and Elza R. Burleson, 1542 Crut.
Candidates for State Representative in addition to Brents include Sol Blumenthal, 2844 Ruckle;
Forrest W. Davis, Tyndall Towne;
Evert Field, Tyndall Towne; Mrs.
Muriel E. Holcomb, 2111 Park avenue; John L. Julian, 821 S. Norfolk street; William O. Rushton, 757 Lexington; Robert M. Traugott, 905 E. Palmer street, and Robert L. Thornberry, Rural Route
3.

Ransom Heads List
The county petitions are headed by the name of Willard B. Ransom. Progressive Party candidate for U. S. Congressman from the 11th District, Ransom, a war veteran and attorney, is state chairman of the NAACP. He is the first Negro to be nominated for Congress by a political party in the history of Indiana.

In addition, Mrs. Edna Lee Johnson, 1132 N. Sheffield, is the party's nominee for State Auditor.
The organization plans no endorsement of old party candidates.
However, two blank spaces were left in the State Representative slate. This would enable Progressive Party followers to vote for two Republican or Democratic candidates whom they believed worthy of support.

Rufus C. Kuykendall, Republican nominee, is one who might benefit from this arrangement, it was learned.
Progressive leaders said they had more than enough signatures to place Wallace, Sen. Glen Taylor for Vice-President and the state ticket on the ballot. However, they declared they will continue collecting signatures for some time
"just in case."

Approximately 6,500 names are needed throughout the state, but the Wallace followers intend to secure at least twice that many.
About 700 signatures must be obtained for the county slate. Party leaders said they were confident the goal would be surpassed. A sound truck has recently been brought into play to speed the signature drive.

park. These seats range along the third base line and including back of home plate.
The bargain offered by the train travel price is evident when it is recognized that the game-train combination tickets are being sold for approximately $1.00 less than a single round trip railroad fare, which is $12.74. Persons not desiring game seats may purchase round trip tickets on the special for only $8.75.
The train leaves Union station
here next Sunday morning, August 22 at 2 a. m. (daylight saving time) and on return leaves Chicago the same day at midnight.
Tickets may be secured at The Indianapolis Recorder office, 518 Indiana avenue, or by mail with a Western Union money order.

TRAGIC ENDING of the life of Mrs. Helen Parham came as a stunning shock to her family and numerous friends Sunday afternoon. Police (shown left) hold back a large, curious crowd which formed shortly after the young mother dropped dead in the front yard of her home after being slashed by her husband, Lee Ross Parham. Dr.
Francis Hummons, deputy coroner (right), makes the investigation a report of which will be used by authorities who will prosecute the husband on a charge of first degree

Funeral services for the young contained only a ten-dollar bill.

Patrolman William Denker, who had been watching from the porch of the Temple residence at North girl and learned she had been directed to the mailbox by a man in the rear of the building.

When the girl asked a man standing in the rear "When did Richard go?", Richard appeared from behind a tree, several hundred feet away and, in justification of his sobriquet, vanished presto when he spied the officer who was dressed in plain clothes.

Detectives Starks and Glenn said.
Last January a man and a wo-

Several months later Mr. Perkins was taken to a cemetery and robbed of a $450 watch, his Lincoln sedan and a revolver.

LOCAL NAACP AIDE TAKES POSITION IN CITY OF CHICAGO

By CHARLES S. PRESTON
A "season of farewells" seemed to have hit local NAACP ranks last week, as two goodbye gatherings were held for active workers in as many evenings.
Board members and others were present at a banquet held Aug. 13 in Francine's Restaurant in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson A. Head.

O. Heywood Rites Held Sat., Aug. 7

Impressive funeral services for Orville Heywood, age 46, 965 N.
Pershing street, were held at Christ Temple Apostolic church last Saturday. Elder Morris Golder, pastor of Christ Temple, officiated. Burial was in Flora Park cemetery.

Mr. Heywood, who died August 11 in his home, was a brother of the late Bishop G. T. Heywood, Pastor of the Apostolic Assemblies of the World, who founded the Apostolic Faith, and Christ Temple church.
Mr. Heywood has been a member of Christ Temple for many years.
He was an official trustee, Sunday School teacher, member of the choir, and a member of the usher board.

A printer by trade, Mr. Heywood owned and operated the Heywood Printing Co. He for more than 20 years had printed the Y's Man of the Senate Avenue YMCA.

Onto-own people attending the funeral included Bishop and Mrs. S. N. Hancock, Bethel Temple Apostolic church, Detroit, Mich.; Bishop Carl Smith, Columbus, Ohio; Elder and Mrs. H. C.
Moore, Morgan Park Pentecostal Assembly, Chicago; Elder W.
Clemens, Chicago; Elder and Mrs. S. Woods, East Chicago, Ind.;
Elder John Caldwell, San Diego, Calif.; Elder O. Sanders, Muncie, Indiana; and Elder S. Johnson, Kokomo, Indiana.

Survivors include the widow,
Mrs. Lillian Heywood; five daughters, the Misses Mary Lou Heywood, Chicago, Sarah, Lola Heywood, Patricia and Marian Heywood, all of Indianapolis, and a brother, William Heywood, of Indianapolis.

The former Planner House staff worker, who in recent months has served as executive secretary of the local branch NAACP, left Sunday to accept a position with the Parkway Community Center, Chicago.

Andrew W. Ramsey was master of ceremonies. Among those paying tribute to Head's community leadership were State NAACP Chairman Willard B. Ransom, Indianapolis Chairman W. T. Ray,
F. E. DeFrantz, Rev. Marshall A.
Talley, Rev. R. H. Peoples, Charles K. Harris, Mrs. Ollie Weeks, Ernest Dix, D. W. D. Hector, Mrs.
Andrew W. Ramsey, and the writer. Mrs. Helen Adams, presented flowers to Mrs. Head. Mrs. Willard B. Ransom and Vernon Adams were introduced.

Head's Parting Words
Responding to the tributes, Head declared that he does not possess unusual "courage," as several speakers had remarked.

"We are not supermen, and the job of ending second-class citizenship does not require supermen," he said. "What it requires is for each individual to accept his responsibility in the crusade for equal rights."
"Negroes must accept the responsibility not to tolerate segregation in any form, whatever it may be. Sincere whites must accept the responsibility not to patronize or aid in any way persons who practice segregation."

Head's place as executive secretary will be filled temporarily by Mrs. Jessie Jacobs, vice-president of the local branch. Branch headquarters have been moved to 510 N. West street, which has been the office of the W. T. Ray Realty Co. The Ray company is moving into the Walker Building, it was said.

A large interracial gathering on Saturday bade farewell to Mrs.
Imogene Johnson, an NAACP board member during the past year and a delegate to the recent Kansas City convention. Mrs. Johnson has been an active worker in labor and civil rights movements in Indianapolis over a period of 15 years.

legitimately, making it possible for several hundred bootleg cabs which are not licensed to "horn in" at substantial profits.

Learning of the operations of the large number of boots, Mayor Al Feeney instructed Chief of Police Edward Rouls to initiate and continue a drive that would force every illegitimate cab from the streets.

Most of the boots, as a matter of precaution, took the mayor's warning seriously and ducked, at least for the time being. As a consequence, colored passengers found it impossible for the most part to secure taxis over the weekend. The deluge of calls to the half-dozen licensed cab operators was so great for hours at a time they left their phones off the hooks so as not to receive calls which they were unable to service properly.

Police have begun compiling lists of every known bootleg operator and those caught operating illegally. The state auto license bureau will be asked to deny their applications next year for auto and drivers' licenses, police said. This move to curb the bootlegs was decided upon in view of the impossibility of obtaining court convictions of arrested bootleg operators. Passengers found in bootleg cabs, invariably refuse to testify against the bootleg operators, police said.

Nevertheless, arrests will continue, police department officials assert, until the bootlegs are forced out of business. Police term the boots a menace in that many operators are criminals and permit the use of their cars for criminal activities. Further, they pay no fees to the city and furnish no insurance protection to their passengers, officers pointed out.

Ill. St. Postal Station Worker Gets Promotion

A new "first" was achieved in the postal field here Monday when Robert E. Martin, veteran custodial worker and member of the National Alliance of Postal Employees, was appointed custodial foreman at the Illinois Street Parcel Post Station.

The appointment marked the first time that a Negro has been named a custodial foreman in the Indianapolis Post Office.

Martin entered the postal service as an elevator operator in Washington, D. C., in 1936. He was transferred here in 1938. He is married and the father of five children.

Martin's appointment was the latest in a series made by Postmaster Adolph Seidensticker during the past two years. NAPE officials pointed out. These include a Negro clerk in charge of scheme examinations, two Negro workers on windows at the main office, and others in the finance and inquiry sections and at stations.

Social Scene

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

Count among the happy vacationers Miss MARTHA LOUISE HARRY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES E. HARRY, who returned this week from a three-week visit out east with relatives and friends. . . She was in Rhode Island two weeks, then spent a week in New York City as guest of Miss GENEVA SKINNER, St. Louis, who, with her sister, is working on a master's degree at Columbia university. . . They stayed in Fumald Hall, dormitory at the university. . .

Naturally there was a whole round of social activities, starting in Providence, R. I. with a theater party and luncheon given by Miss MARJORY BLAND. . . Then came a dinner given the Davises, friends of the family, at their summer home in Barrington, R. I. . . Another home of Mrs. MARY BERTRAND and luncheon at Red Cross House with Mrs. E. STONE as hostess preceded a days' cruise 15 miles down the bay into the ocean to Black Island, one of the highlights of the trip. . .

A unique treasure hunt followed by a buffet supper given by Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM WILEY and daughters, cousins of the Harrys, awaited the vacationers in Norwood, R. I. . . Another home in Mrs. CLIFFORD RICKLING was responsible for two enjoyable days in Narragansett. . . The first day offered a beach party and dinner, while a beach picnic and dancing party made the next day one to be remembered. . .

Miss Harry's aunt, Mrs. CLARENCE E. STONE, climaxed her visit with a dancing party and buffet supper in her honor. . . Several other courtesies were extended during her stay there. . .

As usual, sight-seeing was the main thing in New York City. . . And there is so much to be seen. . . Of special interest to me at any rate was the visit to the Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine, largest church in the country until the National Episcopal Cathedral in Washington is finished. . . The Cathedral of St. John the Divine, itself unfinished, is a tremendous structure with nave two blocks long and is at present the most authentic example of the old cathedral style in the country. . .

Being a librarian, naturally Miss Harry made it a point to visit a few of the city's major libraries, including that at Columbia university, where she attended two concerts, the Harlem branch library, where the New York Omegas had a forum on Dr. Robert Weaver's latest book "The Negro Ghetto," and the famed New York City library. . .

Of course, the major attractions, such as the Empire State building, Times Square, theaters, and night clubs, were included in her tour, along with a session of the United Nations at Lake Success. . . At Union theological seminary she attended an inter-racial buffet supper and dance. . . The Riverside church, itself a cathedral as far as structure is concerned, was another high spot, with its complete inter-racialism. . .

Now Miss Harry is resting at Fox Lake with the family until Labor Day. . .

The south held interest for Mr. and Mrs. OTIS R. BRYANT and sons, OTIS, JR. and MASON for their vacation trip. . . They left Saturday, Aug. 7, for Nashville in their latest acquisition along the car line to visit Dr. and Mrs. LUCRETIA L. LOVE, who are planning a minor vacation Sunday when the special New York Central train will take a goodly portion of our city's populace to Chicago for the annual East-West game classic. . . I may even get

CHARLES S. JOHNSON and family. . .

From there the itinerary included Tuskegee, Ala., where they visited Mr. Bryant's sister, Mrs. HULDA OWEN. . . That's where the charm of the south got to be too much for little Mason, and he parked right there at his aunt's house to stay for a while and enjoy life. . .

Then the three remaining members of the family went on to Columbus, Ga., where they visited Dr. and Mrs. E. B. COFFEY. . . Then from Wednesday to Saturday of last week they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. JAMES G. LEMON in Savannah. . . After whizzing through various towns, so much natural beauty, they topped off their tour with a visit with Dr. and Mrs. THOMAS PERRY in Knoxville, Tenn. . . And now they're back home panting! . .

Up north go Dr. and Mrs. E. D. MOYEN for their vacation. . . They left Sunday for New York City, where he will attend the convention of the National Medical association. . . After that they will go on a sight-seeing tour of such places as Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Niagara Falls, Montreal, Toronto, and Detroit, taking a much-needed rest until about Sept. 1. . .

Dr. and Mrs. E. P. THOMAS and sons, PAUL ARLINGTON and CLIFTON EDWARD and his sister, Miss NAOMI J. THOMAS, have returned from a three-week vacation out west. . . Accompanying them home were Mrs. Thomas' aunt, Mrs. CLARICE OFFICE, and daughter, BRENDA LEE, Oklahoma City. The local residents attended the 50th wedding of Mr. Thomas' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. RUFUS MILLS, in Houston, Tex. . .

Mrs. Officer is a teacher in the public schools of Oklahoma City and member of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority. . . Among affairs given in the Officers' honor was a picnic at the Cincinnati zoo. . . Mrs. MABEL AUGUSTA, leaving this week for Cleveland to spend a two-week vacation with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM MYERS, also plans to visit in Detroit and Youngstown, O. . . Mrs. Augusta had as week-end guests here Mr. and Mrs. JOHN WOOLLEN, Anderson. . .

Mrs. EFFIE LEMONDE left Thursday for Louisville and Ekron, Ky. for her vacation. . . In Louisville she will be guest of Mrs. LUTIE REID, and in Ekron will visit her brother, JAMES BANKS. . .

Mrs. LUCRETIA L. LOVE is leaving Friday for Chicago to visit her nephew, Major EDWARD WIMP. . .

Meanwhile many local residents are planning a minor vacation Sunday when the special New York Central train will take a goodly portion of our city's populace to Chicago for the annual East-West game classic. . . I may even get to go along myself — after all, it is much cheaper than taking a regular train there, and the added pleasure of a train full of nothing but "Naptowners" makes it doubly attractive. . . I hope I can get stories of various parties making the excursion, so we can have some news on it next week. . .

GUEST ARTIST: Miss Muriel Smith, who played the part of Carmen in the musical, "Carmen Jones," will be guest artist at the Delta Sigma Theta sorority's 20th national convention in St. Louis, Aug. 24-30. Miss Smith who has been doing an outstanding job in race relations throughout the country, will appear on the public forum program Tuesday, August 24, at Pleasant Green Baptist church, 4570 Page Boulevard.

PAMELA JO ALLISON, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. WILLIAM B. ALLISON, celebrated her first birthday with a party Sunday afternoon, Aug. 8, from 3 to 5. . . The children played games, after which refreshments were served, and Pamela opened her many gifts. . .

Her little guests included CHAS. and RICHARD BRUCE, FRED. DIE and NOEL EVANS, MILLICENT HANLEY, FLETCHER WILEY, THOMAS, CHARLES, JAMES, CAROL, EDITH, and SHIRLEY WRIGHT, MARY ANNE ALEXANDER, ANNE MARIE GIBSON, PAUL PARKS, JR., EUGENE STOKLEY, JR., JACQUELINE WARD, WILLIAM OWLSLEY, JR., HARRISON WEBSTER, CASSANDRA BLAINE DOUGLASS COLEMAN, NORMAN GRAVES, JR., SANDRA and NORMA MERIWETHER, PAMELA BELL, and MICHAEL HUNT. . .

Those slightly past Pamela Jo's age (who generally enjoy kiddie parties more than the kiddies themselves) were Drs. and Mesdames CHARLES BRUCE, FREDERICK H. EVANS, C. B. COX, Pam's grandparents, and W. R. SHOBIE, her godparents. . . Messrs. and Mesdames EUGENE STOKLEY, WILLIAM OWLSLEY, NORMAN GRAVES, and OLIVER MARTIN. . .

Mesdames RALPH HANLEY, MILDRED WILEY, CHARLES WRIGHT, EZRA ALEXANDER, JR., CHARLENE GIBSON, LUCILLE MURPHY, MINNIE STOKLEY, PEGGY WARD, PAUL PARKS, ROBERT WEBSTER, GEORGE BLAINE, M. COLEMAN, DeWITT JONES, THOMAS TAYLOR, H. BELL, E. BOWENS, NANCY POWELL, and LUELLA LEWIS. . . The Misses JOAN BROOKS, CONSTANCE BOYD, and MARTHA PATRICIA CHARLENE, and LUELLA COX, units of the honor society, and Messrs. CLIFFORD RANSOM, WILLIAM POPE, GILBERT ANGFORD, and JACK CLARK. . . Out-of-town guests were Mrs. KENNETH WASHINGTON and son, KENNY, JR., Jersey City, N. J. . .

Mrs. WILBURN G. WILLIAMS entertained Saturday afternoon at an attractive two-course luncheon. . . The afternoon was spent chiefly at bridge. . . Prizes were won by Mesdames HOWARD BOWLES, VERA ROUSE, MA MIE TURNER, and WILLIAM BRANNON. . . Out-of-town guests were Miss RUTH GARDNER, teacher in the public school system of Los Angeles, and Miss MARIAN THOMPkins, Washington, D. C. . .

Plan Full Social Schedule For National Delta Sorors

ST. LOUIS (Special) — When members of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority assemble in St. Louis August 24-30 for their 20th National Convention, they will find that no stone has been left unturned to provide for their leisure-time activities. The social calendar as released by the convention's planning committee includes a tour of the city, two formal dances, several parties, a moonlight picnic, and an artist recital. . .

On the eve of the convention, August 23, there will be a bus tour at 1:30 p. m. and a radio address by Delta's president, Dorothy Height, over Station WTMV at 7:30 p. m. . . Immediately preceding the convention's formal opening on Tuesday, August 24, will be a coffee hour and reception for delegates and visiting sorors at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA. The evening's activities will close with a cabaret party at the beautiful Club Riviera. . .

Wednesday's social activities will be highlighted by the Delta's artist recital, 8:30 p. m. at Pleasant Green Baptist church, 4570 Page Boulevard. This recital, which is open to the public, will feature Sorors Helen Phillips, soprano; Carol Blanton, pianist; and Ineta Kirtley, soprano. The recital will be followed by the Delta formal at Kiel auditorium, given by Lambda Sigma and Alpha Omega chapters. . .

Thursday evening at 11:30, the Deltas will be entertained with a formal dance and cabaret party at the fashionable Club Plantation, by the Omega Psi Phi fraternity. . . Friday's evening social activities will include a garden party on Lewis Place, courtesy of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority. The Delta banquet will be held at Kiel auditorium. . .

On Saturday, the closing day of the convention, the Deltas will be guests of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority at the Municipal Opera at Forest park. A moonlight picnic, under the joint sponsorship of Alpha Phi Alpha and Kappa Alpha Psi fraternities, will wind up the convention activities at 11:00 p. m. . .

Haughville Teensters Seek To Erect New Teen Canteen

If sheer grit and enthusiasm are all it takes for success, the group of teen-agers in Haughville who are trying to build a teen canteen are well on the road to success.

The bunch of westside kids, headed by Joe Kendrick, president, have assumed the temporary name of the "Haughville Youth for Canteen" until it can be changed to the "Haughville Teen Canteen".

As part of the nancial drive to raise enough funds to purchase a lot and start building a suitable structure for teen-age activities, the youthful promoters will sponsor a street dance Saturday, August 28, on Belmont avenue between 10th and 11th streets beginning at 8 p. m.

Music will be furnished by a bebop orchestra and juke box and pop, sandwiches, and ice cream will be sold. Main feature of the dance will be the crowning of the "King and Queen of Haughville" who will be elected by votes acquired in a popularity contest now in progress under auspices of the youth.

Contestants in the popularity running are Barbara Jean Orkmon, Tillman Buggs, Ernest Smiley, Lola Haywood, Ruby Harris, Lillian Hoby, Beulah Primus, Lawrence Mayfield, Elwood Proctor, Ramona Garrett, and Barbara Harris.

You might say that the idea of a teen canteen for Haughville actually started over two years ago when a bunch of teen-agers formed a club which met in the garage of a well-meaning friend.

The club actually got going pretty strong, and the youngsters were beginning to feel proud of themselves, when parents of a few of the members began figuring that the children were a little too much alone, and quickly squelched that first effort.

Now, however, the children are making no mistake about it. They have two highly able adult advisors, Mrs. Twyla Mayfield and Sanford J. Ramsey, to obviate any disapproval from even the strictest of parents.

In addition, the community as a whole seems to be taking the teen-agers pretty seriously. The children appreciate especially the interest of Rev. G. A. Brooks, pastor of Caldwell Chapel AME Zion church, who has offered the use of the church at any convenient time for them to use for meetings. Other churches of the community, such as Little Flock and Mt. Vernon Baptist churches, have also been helpful along these lines.

Then too, various businessmen and citizens of the community have shown their interest by making very welcome financial contributions to the "crusade".

Now, with a group of over 100 young people, they want a nice, clean place for such harmless activities as dancing, playing games, and just general loafing.

As one spokesman puts it, "We get tired of having to hang around on street corners and cluttering up each other's homes simply in order to be together. We want a place where our activities can be centered and which will be so well run that those few teen-agers who have a knack for getting into trouble will see how nice it is and get on the right track."

In other words, they too are concerned about juvenile delinquency, and, being teen-agers, know exactly the best way to curb it. They point out what a lot of older reformers ignore completely—that dancing is a perfectly normal thing for young people and won't necessarily send their souls straight to perdition. They feel that by having good, wholesome dances, the kids will be so attracted that they will avoid not so wholesome dance halls.

The "executive board", composed of Joe Kendrick, Ramona Garrett, Lillian Thompson, Ernest Smiley, Barbara and Betty Orkmon, Otis Norris, Rebecca Porter, Dora Bailey, Alby Davis, Lol Haywood, Virginia Elliott, Tillman Buggs, Elwood Proctor, Eddi Stowers, Hursel Williams, Barbara Harris, Cliff Tracy, Ella Carter and Pauline Brady, are full of courage and enthusiasm, and point with pride to the fact that they have already raised well over $100 of the needed $500 to get started.

Until that sum is raised, the youngsters will keep meeting at various members' homes and churches.

But, confidentially, don't you think that if Haughville gets behind them properly, they can't help but succeed? (R. C. H.)

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT: Miss Mary Alice Barnett, in the upper right of this picture with her class at John Herron Art Institute, was recipient of another scholarship for her fifth year doing degree work at the institute.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barnett, 2947 Boulevard pl., the artist has had one of her paintings chosen by the director of the school to be sent to Phillips academy, Andover, Mass., along with those of five fifth-year students. Her work was the only one representing her class.

Her brother, Carl Barnett, Jr., himself a portrait artist of no mean ability, has taken courses at Barber's Point university, Hawaii.

National Delta Convention Centered on "Human Rights"

ST. LOUIS—Madam Rajan Nehru, wife of India's Minister to the United States and a member of the distinguished Nehru family, will share with a group of outstanding Americans a forum on "Human Rights — Our Challenge and Our Responsibility" at the public meeting which opens the 20th national convention here of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority next Tuesday evening.

The opening night forum, with its international flavor, will be held in Kiel auditorium, and will be presided over by Lester B. Granger, executive secretary, National Urban League. Others who will participate in the session on human rights are Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, president, National Council of Negro Women; Dr. Homer P. Rainey, president, Stephen's College, Columbia, Mo.; and Mrs. Sadie T. Alexander, member of the recent President's Committee on Civil Rights.

Mrs. Alexander, who was the first national president of Delta, will be awarded a plaque for her contribution to the work of the president's committee. Dr. Rainey is well known for his liberal views, a circumstance which cost him the presidency of the University of Texas. Miss Muriel B. Smith, who starred in the title role of "Carmen Jones", the Broadway production, will be the guest artist for the evening.

The sorority will announce the award of eight scholarships for graduate and special work on Thursday afternoon. At least one of these awards will go to a Liberian woman, yet to be selected. Lambda Sigma, graduate, and Alpha Omega undergraduate, chapters are hostesses for the convention. Various affiliates of the sorority will entertain the visitors. Miss Dorothy I. Height, national president of Delta, will preside at most of the sessions.

DELTA SPEAKER: Madam Rajan Nehru, wife of India's minister to the USA and a member of the distinguished Nehru family, will share with a group of outstanding Americans a forum on "Human Rights — Our Challenge and Our Responsibility" at the public meeting which opens the 20th national convention in St. Louis of Delta Sigma Theta sorority Tuesday evening.

The convention will reaffirm its support of the newly created American Council on Human Rights, the Washington lobby being maintained by a group of six Greek letter fraternities and sororities, and will project a program designed to bring home to Negroes, through affiliated chapters, ways and means of achieving fuller realization of civil rights.

WE SALUTE

ENTERPRISING: Count among the city's progressive young businessmen Timothy C. Mills, owner of the Lauderdale-Rite concern at 523 Indiana avenue.

Coming "home" about nine months ago after living in Minneapolis for the past 13 years, young Mills, son of Rev. Grover C. Mills, founder of the Good Samaritan mission, opened the new business on Dec. 15, 1947 after investing $14,500 into it.

Only Negro-owned and operated completely self-service laundry in the state, the concern boasts of 16 washers, one drier, an extractor (four-minute damp-drier), and a twin-unit water softener system. In about a month a self-service ironing system will be on its way, making that business the first in the city to carry such a complete self-service laundry.

Although racial prejudice could work to the enterprising young businessman's advantage, he does not want it so, and is constantly improving his business to make it without equal. It has every service any other such laundry has, and boasts of several "extras" too.

The laundry staff also includes Maxine Harris, Kyser attendant; Freeman Barnett, maintenance man; and Marvin Mayes, mechanic.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota in 1940, young Mills was a mortician in Minneapolis for about four years after finishing school. He is married to the former Miss Grace Jamerson, teacher at School No. 26, and they and their two children, T. C., Jr. and Chyrle LaVerne, 2, live at 2304 N. Capitol ave. A chess enthusiast, he is a member of the YMCA in Minneapolis, the NAACP, and the Dining Car Waiters Local 516, St. Paul.

Emanuel Harts Entertain Guest

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Hart, 920 N. Missouri st., entertained with a dinner Monday in honor of their house guest Mrs. Mary Coggins, wife of the late Rev. I. M. Coggins, Milwaukee, Wis.

Guests were Rev. and Mrs. Frank F. Young and Mesdames Patsy Jackson, Leatha Irvin and Mattie G. Anderson, president of the National Baptist missionary training school, Nashville, Tenn. Mrs. William Thurman was assistant hostess.

Mrs. Mable Floyd Washington and her singers will go to Anderson Sunday afternoon to appear at Second Baptist church. The singers, Mesdames Hester Waller, Leona Whitfield, Julia Stevenson, Elsa Walls, Lucille Ashford, and Marsha Washington, have made rapid progress during their state.

short time together. They are constantly traveling over the

It is reported a husband will leave Indianapolis at 2 to accompany the singers. Mrs. Washington, director, is one of the famous Floyd singers, who sang with her mother, the late Mrs. Gertrude Floyd, and three sisters during their mother's lifetime. These singers will certainly appreciate seeing their friends in Anderson.

The Wild Rose club will leave from the home of Mrs. Corrie Evans, president to attend the East-West game Saturday night.

Your columnist dropped in at the Temple at 20th and Martin-dale ave., last Sunday night and heard an excellent program. The speaker, Elder Arthur Jennings, Nashville, delivered a beautiful message, and music was furnished by several groups of singers. Elder J. Grier, pastor, is doing a fine job there. The church was packed.

The WSCS of Scott Methodist church will have a social on the lawn of the church Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Corrie Evans is president of the group.

Many friends mourn the passing of Toney Mayes, step-father of Thomas Hibbitt of this city; Reynold Hibbitt, Chicago; and Hayden and Reynold Hibbitt, Pittsburgh. Funeral services were held Monday at Mt. Zion Free Will Baptist church. Many out-of-towners were present.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson, 2461 Sheldon st., are happy parents of another girl born last week. Mother and baby are fine.

Mrs. Eula McIntyre reports her daughter is back in General hospital. Friends may call, send flowers, or send cards. The McIntyres are located at 2307 Wheeler st.

One of the most interesting programs of the summer was held last Sunday, when Mrs. Kathryn J. Wood displayed the junior church of New Bethel Baptist church in full operation. There were junior ushers, clerks, deacons' wives, all dressed in white and ready for service. A young minister, Rev. William Hayes, South Bend, delivered the message at morning and night.

This is a service that will be long remembered by members and friends. Mrs. Wood, superintendent of the junior department, is widely known throughout the state for her very fine work. The junior department of Mt. Paran Baptist church furnished music, assisted by the Silver Tone singers, Lewis Carroll was general chairman. Rev. Mathew Downey, assisted in the evening services.

It's just a few weeks late, but I must tell you about the Lum and Abner club entertained recently in the spacious yard of the home of Mrs. Allen Crosby. A pitch-in luncheon and games were enjoyed by the many friends. Prizes were won by Mrs. Rose

Heads Community Fund Campaign Special Group

LLOYD BYRNE

Lloyd Byrne, president of the B. & G. Machinery Company, has been appointed to head the Special Events committee during the fall campaign of the Indianapolis Community Fund, Stephen C. Noland, general chairman, announced recently.

The drive for $1,504,772 will aid in support of 47 health, youth and welfare Red Feather services and the USO during the year of 1949. The campaign begins Oct. 25 and extends through Nov. 15.

Mr. Byrne served as associate chairman of the same committee last year and has worked for twenty years in the Community Fund drives. He has been associated with Boy Scout activities in the Central District over 30 years. He is an Elder of the Traub Memorial Presbyterian church and is active in various groups or organizations.

Frisbie Styles Legion Project Public Betrayal

Walter Frisbie, Progressive Party candidate for Governor, on Monday denounced the $2,000,000 state-financed office building for the American Legion as "an almost criminal neglect of the public interest and a betrayal of the people's needs."

"Homes instead of office buildings are needed today," declared the former CIO state secretary, now an organizer for UE-CIO.

"On North Pennsylvania street in Indianapolis there is a big hole," Frisbie said. "In this hole and on it will be poured millions of dollars of labor and materials to construct an elaborate office building for the American Legion. It will cost Indiana taxpayers over $2 million. This is a flagrant insult to every vet-lie without charge. More than 200 delegates, beauty experts from throughout the nation who have been trained in Walker Schools and the Walker System, are expected to attend the convention. The intensive three-day program will include public meetings, demonstrations and talks by experts in various phases of beauty culture.

Style Show Climax
A Hair Style Show and Fashion Revue, to be held at the Walker Casino on Tuesday evening, will climax the convention. Mrs. Toki Schalk Johnson, noted editor and columnist, will be guest commentator. Latest creations in fashion, and hair styles created by outstanding Walker stylists, will be demonstrated. An admission fee will be charged.

Other speakers who will address various sessions of the convention include Emmet Lancaster, U. S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C.; Virgil Martin, general superintendent of the Wm. H. Block Co.; Mrs. Marjorie S. Joyner, national supervisor, Madam C. J. Walker Colleges of Beauty Culture, Chicago; Bert McCann, local sales expert, and Dr. Paul A. Batties.

Special sales representatives of the company who will take part in the convention include Jay T. Smith, Kansas City, Mo.; Raymond Hilliard, New York; C. G. Savage, Dallas, Texas; Walker Perry, Philadelphia, and D. W. D. Hector, Indianapolis.

eran and his family who needs a home."

The Wallace party leader added that the actions of part of the leadership of the Legion "approached blackmail," and continued.

"The Indiana General Assembly buckled under to the threats of part of the top leadership of the American Legion that they would move their headquarters from Indianapolis, and dug into the public pocket for $2 million. It may not have been a bribe in the legal sense, but it represents heartless neglect of the urgent housing needs of the public and the members of the American Legion."

REPUBLICAN CLUB MAPS PROGRAM FOR FALL CAMPAIGN

The Fall Creek Republican Club mapped plans for fall election at a meeting held at the Federation of Associated Clubs Home Tuesday, Aug. 16.

Jimmie Brown, popular capable president of the club, urges all members to act untiringly and unselfishly in carrying out the victory plans of the club. And all members were pledged to unity and cooperation in carrying out the program of the organization.

WALKER MFG. CONVENTION SITE: Shown above is the famous Walker Building, Indiana avenue and West street, where the sessions of the Madam C. J. Walker Mfg. Company convention will be held August 23-25. Hundreds of agents from all parts of the country and principals and members of the staff of the several Walker Beauty Colleges in the principal cities will attend the convention here at the home office and factory of the internationally known business organization.

News writer Posing as Negro Finds Life Tough in Dixie

NEW YORK (ANP)—Life for a Negro in the south is not merely one of bearing up under discrimination, it is one of almost virtual slavery as an inferior group, a white man who lived as a Negro for four weeks in the south reported in the New York Herald Tribune this week.

The man who tells this story of fear and constant humiliation in the south is Ray Sprigle, reporter and staff member of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and winner of the Pulitzer prize.

Sprigle, disguised as a colored man, along with a real Negro companion selected by Walter White, NAACP executive secretary, traveled on jimmie railroad cars, drank from "colored" water fountains, used "colored" entrances and subjected himself to all the other inconveniences of being colored during this period.

He has reported his experiences in the south in a series of 12 copyrighted articles called "In the Land of Jim Crow."

Throughout the tour he was accepted as a light skinned Negro. His race was detected only twice during this period, both times by colored persons.

Speaking of the prejudice and life he encountered in the south, he said:

"For four endless, crawling weeks I was a Negro in the deep south. Don't anybody try to tell me that the north discriminates against the Negro, too, and seek to use that as a defense of the savage oppression and the brutal intolerance hit black man encounters in the south. 'Discrimination against the go in the north is an annoyance and an injustice. In the south it is bloodstained tragedy.

"In the north, the Negro meets with rebuff and insult when he seeks service at hotels and restaurants. But at least in states like Pennsylvania and others, he can take his case to court and he invariably wins. But in the south he is barred by law from white hotels and restaurants."

The Pulitzer prize winner wrote that in cases of race riots in the north both races are punished, but in the south "only the black ones climb the steps to a gallows or serve terms in a cell."

In short, discrimination against the Negro in the north is usually in defiance of the law. In the south it is enforced and maintained by the law."

The writer first indoctrinated into the jimmie pattern when he took the segregated coach on a southern train from Washington, D. C. He spoke of the excellent service he received in the diner in the segregated section behind the jimmie curtain of course.

On the train, however, he wrote he began to undergo a change in thinking. He began to think like a black man instead of a white.

Speaking of his change in thinking, Sprigle wrote:

"Already I was in the pattern. Already I was experiencing the thing that was to grow upon me through the succeeding weeks. These whites already were a people entirely alien to me, a people set far apart from me and my world.

Wilberforce Groups Seek To End Feuds

WILBERFORCE (ANP)—In a move to end the two-year feud between the two Wilberforces, one state supported, the other church supported, Dr. Charles Leander Hill last week offered to resign over Wilberforce university — if the chairman of the board of trustees and the president of the rival Wilberforce state college would follow suit.

The schools, both on the same campus, haven't been on speaking terms for the past two years. Dr. Hill wrote a letter to Gov. Herbert proposing the move in an effort to reunite the two Wilberforces.

The African Methodist Episcopal church supports the university section, while the other half is state supported and headed by Dr. Charles H. Wesley. Chairman of the college trustees is Ray E. Hughes, an attorney.

It was reported that Bishop Reverdy C. Ransom of the AME church has been inactivated by the church. Bishop Ransom, it will be remembered, figured a great deal in the controversy.

"Already I had begun to dislike them. It did no good to tell myself that I was white - or that I would be white again four weeks hence. I was beginning to think like a black man."

To tell the truth I doubt if I ever will regain the satisfied, superior white psychology that I took south with me."

BUSINESS LEADERSHIP URGED AT PHI BETA SIGMA PARLEY

LOS ANGELES—No amount of denunciation of American prejudice or unfairness of the white man is going to produce for Negroes the number of jobs, the degree of wealth, or the quality of comfort which every American seeks as his birthright. H. A. Howard, president of Broadway Federal Savings and Loan Association, told delegates to the 34th national convocation of Phi Beta Sigma fraternity, meeting here last week.

"We can no longer remain indifferent, or continue to plead inability to deal with the situation where an economic depression has inevitably found Negroes on home relief far out of proportion to their ratio to the total population," Howard warned.

The West Coast banking official described a picture where Negro income is small; all employables in the family are usually compelled to work; the competition for jobs in urban areas has become keener; and discrimination is still prevalent. He reasoned that if so-called white enterprise is "either unwilling or unable to absorb the potential labor force among Negroes," business enterprise of Negroes themselves must be stimulated to carry the load.

Hits "Grand Talk"
Howard chided Negro business people for talking in "grandiose terms" of expansion and development with apparently no inclination to go seriously beyond the point of proposing. He cited three examples where the sponsors of good ideas held the "wisest hope" that investors would be attracted to their programs merely by reading of them in the newspapers.

Bemoaning the "absence" among us of nationally recognized business leaders, Howard maintained that no matter how good an idea is, or how bold its projection, "its success or failure is going to depend heavily upon the business prestige and business leadership of the sponsors of the idea."

He concluded his statement by urging business people to assume their share of responsibility "for molding opinion and speaking the views of Negroes" rather than leaving it to the "social workers."

VICE PRESIDENT: Miss A'Leila E. Ransom, daughter of the late F. B. Ransom, recently elected vice president of the Madam C. J. Walker Company, will be among company officials who will discuss the company's policy and problems with delegates attending the convention here Aug. 23-25.

politicians, educators and the clergy to shape the destinies of our group."

Governor Blames Election Result On Negro Vote

LITTLE ROCK—(ANP)—Negro voting decided the recent runoff election in favor of Sidney McMath for governor of Arkansas. Gov. Ben Laney said this week.

Blaming the result of the election on controlled block voting by Negroes, he said that McMath got votes from "Negroes who didn't know for whom they were voting because they had been told to."

When asked about the Negro vote, he said, "I'd say it was the deciding factor."

He said he had "one particular objection to Negro voting."

"I have no objection to the independent Negro who knows for whom he is voting, but I do object to a vote which was fixed. I condemn organized, fixed and controlled block voting."

Pointing out Ouachita county, the governor noted that the Negroes gave McMath his majority there. He said, "I can say this because I saw the voting."

Wants Equality as Much as Truman, Schriker Avers

"I want equality in citizenship as much as President Truman," declared former Gov. Henry F. Schriker, Democratic candidate for governor, in an address to organization workers and fellow-candidates here last week. "There is no time for double talk in the fall campaign."

Recalling that the Ku Klux Klan fought him "bitterly" when he ran for state senator in 1920, Schriker said:

"I was terribly shocked to learn how this ignoble organization had deceived the people. It made me sick at heart to think that the government had fallen into such hands."

NAACP Officials Differ on Manner Of Defying Draft

NEW YORK (ANP)—National NAACP officers do not see eye to eye with the New York branch officials on matters of draft defiance and have so expressed themselves. In a release last week, the executive secretary said the association had opposed defying authority or flaunting the banners of revolution.

The Harlem branch of the association in a published statement had asked for a mass demonstration against a "jim-crow army" on the first day of the draft and another in September in Columbus Circle (50th street and Broadway—the "uptown Union Square.")

The spokesman for the Harlem branch said "the time has come to organize a really powerful campaign of direct action against the official policy of the federal government that is responsible for jim-crow in the armed forces."

While he deplored the declaration of the Harlem Branch, which recently employed a paid secretary to carry on its work, Walter White said the parent body would continue its fight against segregation and discrimination within the framework of the United States constitution.

COURIER TO FEATURE SERIES BY NEWSMAN WHO POSED AS NEGRO

PITTSBURGH—A foremost white newspaper reporter of America has been living in the South disguised as a Negro and his story, "I Was a Negro in the South for 30 Days," will begin in The Pittsburgh Courier issue of August 28.

Ray Sprigle, who won a Pulitzer prize in journalism in 1938 when he uncovered the connections of Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black with the Ku Klux Klan, has done it again.

In his Courier series, he tells how for a full month he traveled as a Negro, lodging in Negro households, eating in Negro restaurants and enduring the discrimination of jim crowism.

Since not one of the hundreds of Negroes Sprigle talked to knew he was white, they were candid and open with him. His story thus carries all the more force for being straight-from-the-shoulder, factual news reporting.

Through a special arrangement with the New York Herald Tribune and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, The Pittsburgh Courier will have exclusive Negro press rights to the series.

Late this past winter Mr. Sprigle went to Miami, ostensibly to describe the results of the bursting of the Florida vacation bubble. Actually it was to acquire the necessary deep sun tan for him to pass as a Negro.

Mr. Sprigle's expose' trip began in Washington, D. C. That's when he first had to change over from white accommodations to a jim crow car. He traveled as far South as Atlanta, then turned inland and went across country to the Delta land in Mississippi. His tour covered more than four thousand miles.

When the first episode of "I Was a Negro in the South for 30 Days" appears in the August 28 issue, Mr. Ray Sprigle himself will write a special message to Courier readers.

"I Was a Negro" will be MUST reading for every American interested in the great documents of our time.

Civil Rights "Push" Seen by Sen. Eastland

CIVIL RIGHTS PUSH v. GL. HOUSTON—(ANP)—There's no way of stopping passage of two of the civil rights measures at the January session of congress according to Sen. James Eastland who was attending the states rights meeting here last week. The two measures are the anti-poll tax and anti-lynching bills.

"In my judgment the next congress will pass the anti-poll tax bill and some form of anti-lynching bill," he said.

However, he pointed out that the states rights movement was of "tremendous benefit to the South," because it set people throughout the nation to thinking what they would lose "in control of their affairs if the civil rights program were enacted."

"Northern senators tell me that for the first time they are receiving mail in opposition to the proposals and that the people of their states oppose it," he added. The poll tax measure would win passage, he felt, despite the fact that many senators and congressmen really "believe the act is unconstitutional."

"If congress can set one set of rules for elections, they can set others," he said. "They would soon be deciding qualifications of voters in all states."

Though he thought the anti-lynching bill having the best chance of passage is the so-called "senate bill" from the past session, he warned that there is a "heavy demand in the lower house for a more vicious measure and we may not be able to stop it."

Army Jimcrow's End Feared by Big Business, Report

NEWARK, N. J. (NNPA)—National business concerns fear that the abolition of segregation in the armed services will give impetus to the drive for fair employment practice legislation, Harold Lett chief assistant in the division against discrimination in the New Jersey Department of Education, disclosed here last Tuesday night.

During his address before the thirty-fifth annual convention of the National Dental Association, he read from a confidential bulletin circulated among business groups, which stated that "Many outside the armed forces believe that abandonment of military segregation policies would give renewed impetus to a movement greatly feared by many business men—for a national FEPC."

Mr. Lett declined to disclose the name of the publication or its publishers.

CHICAGO MAYOR ENDORSES $18,000,000 HOUSING PLAN

Elks Stress Campaign for Education

WASHINGTON, D. C. (NNPA)—Activities of the Elks' Department of Education, scheduled for the annual grand lodge session at Cincinnati Aug. 21 to 27, are intended to present the cultural side of the order, according to William C. Hueston, grand commissioner of education.

"While the Elks through the years have been aiming at educating leadership for the race, and has not abandoned that program, Mr. Hueston said, "at the request of the United States Government it has been devoting its attention to the correction of the evil of functional illiteracy."

He said it appeared, with some support, that two out of every five colored persons over 25 years of age are functionally illiterate, "meaning they are unable because of lack of education and training, to take care of their own personal business matters."

According to Mr. Hueston, forty-nine students are attending college on Elks' scholarships. Four graduated in June. They are Lena Grace Bradley, Tennessee State; Gertrude Guilford, Wilberforce; Clodel Johnson, University of California and Donald R. Todd, Denver University, who will teach at Spelman College beginning in the fall.

Since the Education Department was established by the Elks in 1927, Mr. Hueston said, there have been 647 college graduates who attended school on Elks' scholarships. Of that number, 134 were winners of Elks' oratorical contests and the remainder were awarded scholarships on recommendations of high school faculties, lodges and temples, with tests of their scholarship abilities conducted by Mr. Hueston.

Two Councilmen In Gary Honored By Women's Club

GARY—The two Negro members of the Gary City Council, Benjamin F. Wilson and Terry C. Gray, were honored in a surprise ceremony at last week's council meeting when they were presented leather-bound office diaries by the Grace Wilson Evans Federated Women's Club.

Wilson and Gray, both freshmen members of the council, were presented the gold-embossed books in appreciation of their service "to all the people of Gary." Mrs. Tommie Calloway made the presentation to Wilson, and Mrs. Ocie Cowers to Gray. Mrs. Cowers was defeated by Gray in last year's primary.

Wilson accepted the donors' challenge to enter in the diary "all the good things you still will do for the people of Gary."

"I hope I can inscribe at least a few before I retire," he commented.

Gray observed:

"It's gestures like these that remind us that the citizens, though they seldom bother to attend council meetings, nevertheless have their eyes closely trained on everything we do. Perhaps all of us had best keep on our good behavior from now on in!"

TOLERANCE PICTURES SHOWN BY BOSTON LABOR COMMITTEE

BOSTON (ANP)—Recently the Boston Labor committee, by special arrangement with both management and labor, has been presenting racial tolerance pictures during the lunch period in various industrial plants. Actively supporting the project are the AFL, CIO, the Catholic Interracial council, the Presbyterian Institute of Industrial relations, the Jewish Labor committee, the Negro Labor committee, the National conference of Christians and Jews, and the Massachusetts Committee of Catholics, Protestants, and Jews.

Editorially, the Boston Globe has praised the effort "because bigotry and bias obviously do not make for teamwork in the plant." The films suit the need of labor unions in that they stress unity in the ranks.

"THE FIRST $1,000 FOR TRUMAN: Shown above Mr. Sherman Hibbitt, Harlem's unofficial Mayor is presenting the first $1,000 contribution to the National Citizens Committee for the Re-election of President Truman. Mr. John H. Sengstacke, Chicago newspaper executive and treasurer, of the committee (left) is receiving the check from Mr. Hibbitt. Congressman William L. Dawson (Dem., Ill.) chairman of the committee looks on. The presentation was made at the committee headquarters in the Biltmore Hotel, New York City.

Wallace to Speak for Convention of Elks

By CONRAD CLARK

NEW YORK—(ANP)—Among the many political leaders scheduled to speak next Tuesday at the 49th annual grand lodge convention of Elks, in Cincinnati, is Henry A. Wallace, former vice-president of the United States, and candidate for the presidency of the U. S. on the Progressive party's slate.

On that night, leaders of the three major political parties are scheduled to address the convention which officially opens that morning and will close on Aug. 27. It is also expected that Paul Robeson will attend the convention and become a member of the organization, which has more than 255,000 members throughout the United States, Canada, the British West Indies, Cuba, South America, Africa and England, as well as Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

The convention will also mark the 25th anniversary under the leadership of its grand exalted ruler, J. Finley Wilson, who was elected to that office in Newark. Host to the convention will be Alpha Lodge No. 1 of Cincinnati, the first Elks lodge known as "The Mother Lodge of Elksdom."

CLEVELAND COP JAILED IN BUST OF $10,000,000 POLICY RACKET

CLEVELAND—(ANP)—A kidnaping, some talking by racketeers and quick action by an ex-FBI man has led to the breaking up of the $10,000,000 a year numbers racket in Cleveland.

Police Lt. Ernest L. Molner was convicted of collaborating with three policy bosses and accepting bribes to allow the racket to continue. Common Pleas Judge Joseph A. Artl sentenced Lt. Molner to 6 to 10 years in prison.

Assistant safety director Alvin J. Sutton, a former FBI agent, conducted the investigation leading to Molnar's conviction.

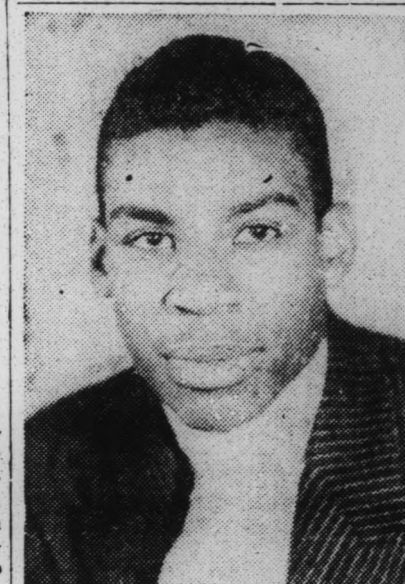

Key figure in the breaking up of the policy department — "Big Three" policy combine — was Luis Lorenzo, one of the policy kings charged with trying to "put away" a player who "hit" last summer.

Before he was convicted he decided to "tell all." He revealed the tie-up between the policy game and the police department. He named Molnar as the central figure in the payoff of around $200,000 in bribes since 1944 to police officers.

URBAN LEAGUE CONFERENCE SPEAKERS: Shown above President J. M. Ellison, Virginia Union University; Leon H. Keyserling, vice chairman, Council of Economic Advisers to the President of the United States, and Oscar Ewing, National Administrator, Federal Security Agency. Mr. Ellison will address the National Urban League annual conference to be held on the campus of Virginia Union on September 6. Mr. Keyserling and Mr. Ewing are the principal speakers for the conference.

Local Children Farm Guests In Eastern Section of State

S. C. NAACP AIDE: Eugene A. R. Montgomery has been named recently as executive secretary of the South Carolina State Conference of the NAACP with offices at Columbia, S. C. He is a 1948 graduate of the Atlanta School of Social Work and is a member of Phi Beta Sigma fraternity.

HAGERSTOWN—Indiana's version of the "Vermont interracial plan" went through its second year of operations this week as a dozen Negro children from Indianapolis were guests of farmers and townspeople of this rich Eastern Indiana farming district.

Accompanied by Miss Anna P. Stout, co-chairman of the race relations committee of the Indianapolis Church Federation, the children arrived here Sunday and were distributed to the widely-scattered homes where they are staying.

The children range in ages from nine to twelve. The homes where they are guests are of various religious denominations, with white children of the same age to show them the ropes of farm and small-town life.

The week's schedule called for the mixed groups of children to attend a 4-H day, to swimming, attend picnics and lawn parties. The week will be climaxed by a basket dinner for the children and their parents Sunday evening at the Church of the Brethren near here.

Kids Like Farm Life

Most interesting of all to the city kids, however, are the normal activities of country life — riding horses, driving tractors, feeding chickens and hogs, milking cows and playing around the farm.

The local children welcomed their little guests eagerly. In games and sports they vied for the attention of the visitors from the city.

The plan was launched in 1947, following a visit to Hagerstown of Rev. A. Ritchie Low, famed Vermont pastor who was the father of the interracial plan.

Mrs. Raymond Jones, who lives on a modern, well-kept farm west of town, has been the chief spark-plug in organizing the movement and keeping it going. Mrs. Jones was one of 12 Hoosiers cited in the Indianapolis Recorder's Race Relations Honor Roll for 1947.

The children will return to Indianapolis on Sunday.

Children Listed

Among the group, Walter Scott Blackburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Blackburn, 3971 Corneliuss ave., who is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beauchamp, New Lisbon; Harriet Blackburn, who is visiting the Walter Hagens; James Cooksey, Sr., 605 Drake, staying with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lester, Losantville; Randall Hutchinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hughes, 2839 Boulevard pl., guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wampole. Also, Shelia M. Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Milliken Jr., 524 Blake st., visiting the Joneses; Lydia Nelson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Clarence T. R. Nelson, 4118 Corneliuss ave., also with the Joneses; Sandra Nelson, staying with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Belt; Frederick Parker Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Parker Sr., 234 W. 25th st., visiting the Lesters.

Also Luella Stenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philmore Stenson, 636 Blake st., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowman; Eddie Lou Evans, Frank Minor and a twelfth child whose name couldn't be learned. Full information was the three last-named children was not available as The Recorder went to press.

HENRY J. BRANNER FUNERAL RITES HELD AT MARION

Funeral services for Henry J. Branner, age 60, 428 N. California street, were held Aug. 9 at Marion, Ind. He was buried in the Veterans' cemetery there.

Born in Knoxville, Tenn., Mr. Branner had lived in Marion 40 years. He was confined to the Veterans' Hospital at Marion 13 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ophelia Branner; a son, Homer Branner, of Los Angeles, Cal.; a brother, Tobe Branner, and a sister, Mrs. Kate Dunson, both of Indianapolis.

AME Publishing House Announces An Encyclopedia

PHILADELPHIA—(ANP)—The AME Publishing house announced last week that the Encyclopedia of African Methodism has finally come off the presses.

Reputed to be the largest book ever published by a Negro firm, the Encyclopedia was compiled by Bishop R. R. Wright Jr., editor in chief. Bishop Reverdy C. Ransom, chairman, research and historical department, wrote the foreword, and Bishop W. A. Fountain, the church's senior bishop, wrote the introduction.

The book is considered the "who's who" of the AME church, listing all the bishops and general officers since the beginning of the church. It includes many pictures of persons who have contributed something toward the advancement of the church.

ANDERSON URBAN LEAGUE HEAD TO ATTEND VA. CONFAB

ANDERSON—William B. Harper, executive secretary of the Anderson Urban League, will attend the annual conference of the National Urban League at Virginia Union University, Richmond, Va., Sept. 6-10.

Million "$" Fund to Reelect Truman Comes from Many Areas

NEW YORK—Standing out among the many contributions to the Million Dollar Re-Elect Truman Fund were two received last week at the Biltmore Hotel headquarters.

One was $1,000—from Sherman Hibbitt of 2395 Eighth Avenue, the unofficial mayor of New York's Harlem.

The other was $5—from Mrs. Emma B. Johnson, a 53-year-old Chicago woman facing eviction from her tiny room at 3138 Calumet Ave. In size, it was like a thousand more.

Hibbitt delivered his contribution in person to John H. Sengstacke, treasurer of the National Citizens Committee For the Re-election of President Truman, in the presence of Congressman William L. Dawson, Committee Chairman.

Mrs. Johnson mailed hers to Congressman William L. Dawson in care of President Harry S. Truman at the White House.

Her letter told of a change in landlords, an eviction notice, and a fruitless search for some place to go. "You are here and President Roosevelt has passed, and you are still a Truman man for the help of the people. Please don't forget me," she wrote.

At her home Mrs. Johnson declared that any sensible person who wants peace and harmony cannot refuse to vote for President Truman. She spoke of what civil rights means to her and declared, "This freedom must stand."

Shadow of Freedom

Hibbitt, at the other end of the economic ladder, said to Sengstacke "The Democratic Party came through with the most far-reaching omnibus plank on civil rights ever written, and the Negro today, for the first time since the emancipation stands in the shadow of that economic and social freedom which he has continually sought."

"To obtain this freedom, we have but to elect as president, Harry S. Truman—the father of the civil rights program. Today this costs money. I am proud to be among those millions of Negroes who are willing to pay the price."

Montgomery, Ala.—(ANP)—In a postcard telling state authorities here that they will never see him again, Haywood Patterson, Scottsboro prisoner, who led a prison break from Kilby prison July 20, complained that he left because of the ill treatment he received there.

Patterson is one of the nine famous Scottsboro "boys" accused for years during the '30's of raping a white woman on a box car. He was sentenced finally in 1937, but has not received a parole.

In his postcard to Kilby sent from Brooklyn, he wrote, "You'll never see me again. I fled because you never treated me right." The card was signed, "Haywood." He also added, "I am no longer in New York."

On the other side, prison director Frank Boswell called Patterson a "bad actor" who had been punished 15 times for violating prison rules. He said he was sure Patterson would be captured and returned. He has sent out notices of the escape to several states.

Identification Officer W. L. Odiorne identified handwriting on the postcard as the handwriting of Patterson.

Of the eight men who escaped with Patterson, six boys have been captured. He is the only Scottsboro defendant who has not been paroled.

FIERY CROSS BLAZES AT EMPTY FRIENDS' CAMP IN JERSEY

RINGWOOD, N. J.—(ANP)—An empty interracial camp last week was the scene of the burning of a 12-foot cross, police here reported. The camp, supervised by the Natude Friends organization, is occupied on weekends by 100 to 200 campers of all races.

The huge cross was burned at the top of a flagpole and at the bottom hung this note: "This is the U. S. A., not Russia. If there is any trouble, you Communist get it first."

Hoosier GI from Connersville Serves in Japan

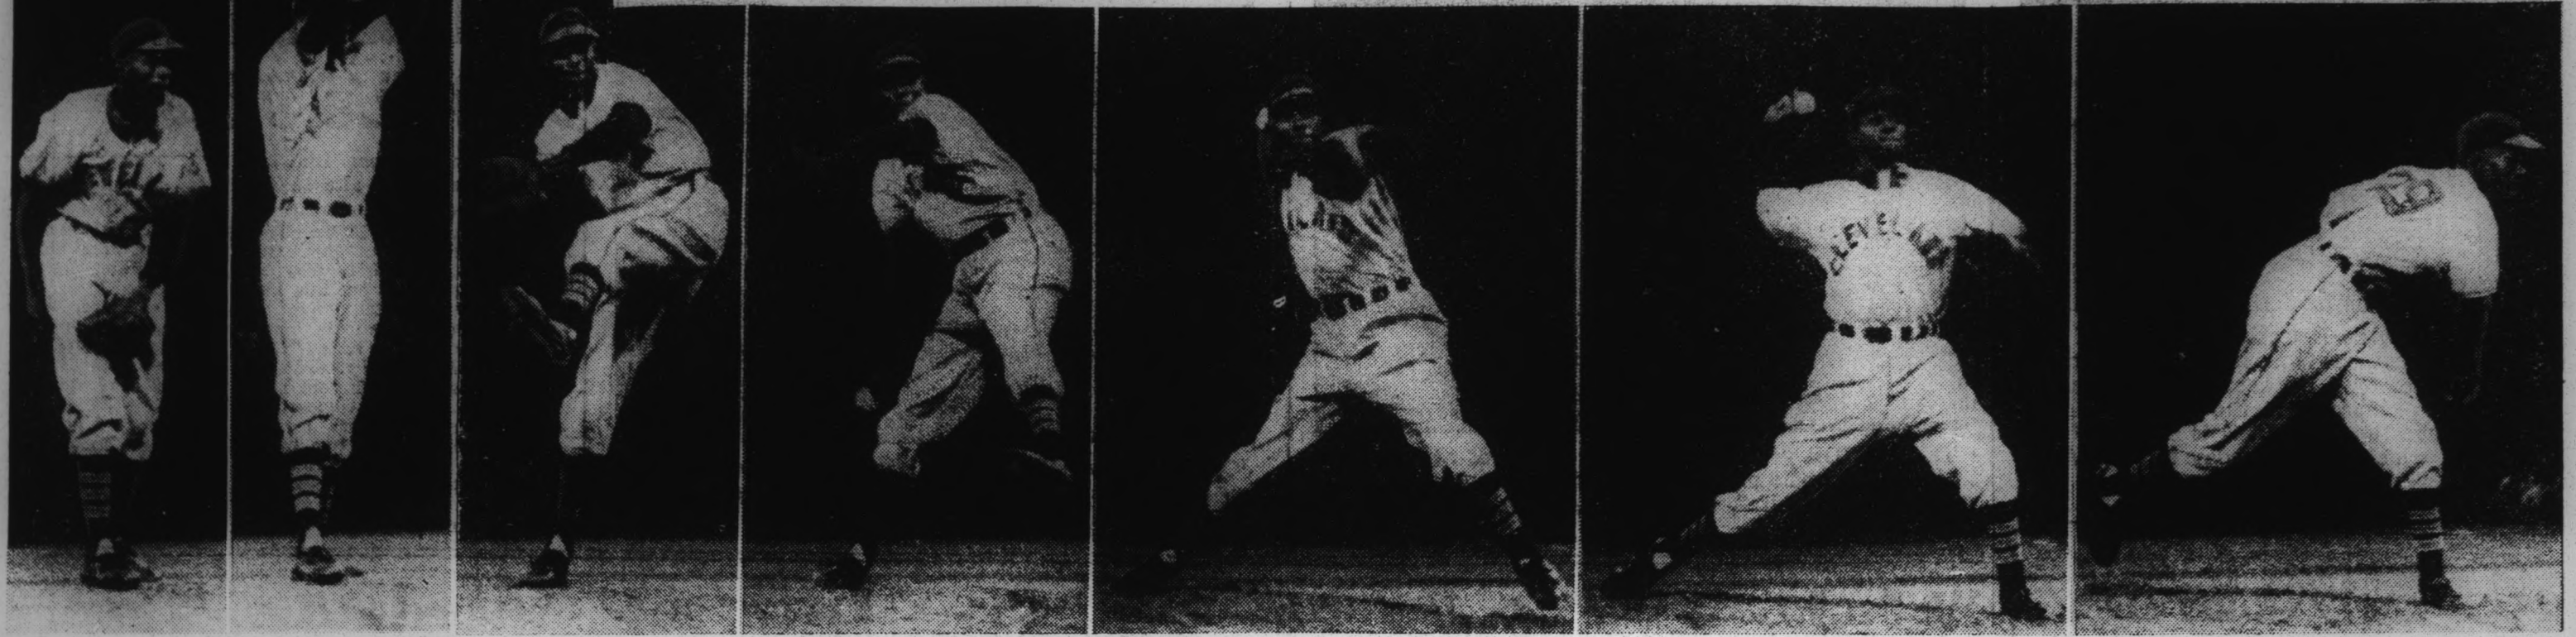

YOKOHAMA, Japan—T/5 Frederick L. Sleet, 289th Army Band has been found qualified in the military occupational specialties of clerk-typist and bandsman (trumpet).

These qualifications acquired largely through Army training and experience will aid Corporal Sleet to obtain advancement under the new Career Plan which is to govern all promotions in enlisted and warrant grades.

Stationed in Yokohama seat of the headquarters of General Robert L. Eichelberger's Eighth Army, Sleet is filling an essential job with the Army's occupational force. He entered the Army in 1946.

He is a graduate of Connersville high school and is the son of Mrs. Mollie Sleet, 816 W. Sixth st., Connersville, Ind.

Easy Does it Secret of Paige's Style

"THE OLD MAN OF THE MOUNTAIN STILL GOING STRONG": The legendary Leroy "Satchel" Paige of baseball fame who became a member of the Cleveland Indians, American League baseball club this season, pitched his first league full game before a record crowd in the Chicago White Sox park last Friday night. "Satch" blanked the White Sox to the tune of 5 to 0. Above the "magic eye" camera shows Paige pitching in the game in which he allowed five hits but no rival player crossed the home plate.—(INS Photo by Joe Mignon.)

ALL STAR SQUADS RATE ALL TIME BEST

White Sox Blanked By "Satchel" Paige

By LUK OVERBEA
CHICAGO (ANP)—Pitching before the largest night baseball crowd in Chicago's history, Leroy "Satchel" Paige established himself as a major league pitcher last week as he twirled his Cleveland Indians to a 5 to 0 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

A record crowd of 51,013 cheering fans saw Paige hold the Sox to only five hits as he pitched his first complete major league game and his first major league shut out.

He walked nobody and struck out one man as he defied the Friday 13 jinx and led his team back into first place in the four-team American league race.

Paige's Negro teammate, Larry Doby, however, provided the needed punch that gave Satch his winning margin. In the fifth inning he smashed out a triple against the center field wall, and scored the first run of the game on catcher Jim Hegan's long fly.

Doby also singled in a run in the ninth inning and stole two bases in the same frame.

In the first inning, a man who has been around nearly as long as Satchel himself, Luke Appling found Paige for a single after two outs. No other Chicago man reached first until two were out in the fifth when Dave Philley singled.

Pitcher Randy Gumpert found him for a single in the sixth inning and reached second on a sacrifice. In the seventh frame Ralph Hodgin reached first base on an error by Joe Gordon.

The only real threat to score made by the White Sox came in the ninth inning when Appling again slammed out a one runner. Pat Seery, the Chicago home run ace, also singled, sending Appling to second with only one out. Both men advanced on a grounder by Aaron Robinson.

The White Sox moundsman, Gumpert, matched Paige, pitch for pitch until the fifth inning when Doby tripled to open the inning and scored on Hegan's long fly.

He then held the Indians in check until the eighth when Ken Keltner opened with a single, went to second on a sacrifice, and scored on a hit by Dale Mitchell. The Indians rally was snuffed out when Hal Peck was thrown out at second base by Hodgin when he tried to stretch a single into a double.

In the ninth, Cleveland scored three unearned runs on two hits, two stolen bases and two Chicago errors. Boudreau opened with a single. Eddie Robinson was safe at second on a two-base error by Don Kalloway, and Boudreau went to third.

Boudreau scored on a long fly by Gordon, and Robinson scored when Doby singled. Keltner fled out to center, and Hegan walked. Before Hegan walked, Doby stole second. Doby and Hegan then pulled a double steal to second and third, and Doby scored when Robinson made a wild throw to third base. Paige ended the inning with a grounder to the pitcher.

Ted Rhodes Rated Favorite in Joe Louis Golf Meet

DETROIT—Theodore Rhodes, winner of the Joe Louis Invitational Golf Tournament for the past two years, will be ranked a slight favorite to repeat when the annual 72-hole meet is held Aug. 30-31, Sept. 1-2 at Racham Golf Course here.

Rhodes will be favored to cop the $10,000 first prize by virtue of his four-under-par 280 last year, which broke the former tourney record by 10 strokes.

The Nashville pro faces some stiff competition, however. He was pushed all the way in 1947 by Bill Spiller and Solomon Hughes, both of whom shot 283. Howard Wheeler and Willie Mosley were knotted at 286, while Leroy Smith and Charles Sifford chalked up 290's.

Rural Clark, favored in the amateur division, must overcome the resistance of Judson Grant of Los Angeles, Alfred "Tup" Holmes, Jr. Remus Robinson and Host Joe Louis of the Motor City, and numerous other crack simon-pures. Tourney Director Bernard Odell said he anticipates a record entry.

N. Y. Black Yankees Play Here Sat. Nite

The New York Black Yankees will play the Indianapolis Clowns at Victory Field Saturday evening, August 21 at 8:30. This will be the first game between the Clowns and a team of the National League to be played at Victory Field this season.

The Black Yankees will return to Victory Field on Thursday evening, August 26 to play the Clowns in a game sponsored by the Tillman Harpole Post, American Legion. Added attractions will include a parade of the Drum and Bugle Corps and Majorettes. Also Legion dignitaries will appear on the program.

New York's Black Yankees will bring a pleasing lineup here. They have John Stanley, the veteran southpaw; Frank Pearson, Robert Griffith, Houston Stephens and Charles Davidson handling their hurling. Rufus Baker is first string catcher. George Crowe, the husky hard-hitting Hoosier from Franklin College, who also stars with the New York Rens basketball team, is on first base. Joe Spencer at second, sensational Walter Hardy at short and the famed Marvin Barker at third. Barker also has hurled six consecutive victories for the New York aggregation.

The easterners' outfield is a good one with Art Hefer, Bub Barber, John Smith and Ben Little. Ruben Jones, formerly of the Memphis Red Sox, coaches the Yanks.

The Clowns are scheduled to play the Cleveland Buckeyes at Victory Field, Friday night, August 27. The August schedule of the Clowns at Victory field will include a game on Monday night, August 30 with the Chicago American Giants.

Start of Bowling In Naptown Recalled

By TINEY BALDWIN

(Editor's Note — Mr. Baldwin, known as the "Father of Bowling in Indianapolis," now heads the largest bowling league in Detroit. During a visit to our city last week he wrote the following article on the local history of the sport. It will be concluded in next week's issue.)

While visiting in the city, I have had numerous talks with bowlers. The biggest question was: Who organized bowling? Looking back over a period of years, I can remember when bowlers had to bowl at night and no women were allowed in bowling alleys.

The league was organized in 1939-40 at John Davis's Central Alleys. During the year of 1938-39, bowling had started at Fountain Square but had ended in the middle of the year due to complications at those alleys.

Pin-Boys Started It
After the complications at Fountain Square, the shift went to Central Alleys. This came through the efforts of Bob McCombs. Bob went to Mr. Beam and received permission to bowl at those alleys without women and at 1 o'clock in the morning. The latter required some guts, as the bowlers could never get home until 6 o'clock in the morning. Then it was necessary to explain to the wife or girl friend why she wasn't allowed. Finally to get back to work at 10 o'clock the same morning.

In 1938-39 all of the bowling alley proprietors bought shirts for their respective boys, and soon after the boys began to want other sponsors.

They elected new officers for the year 1939-40 with yours truly, Tiney Baldwin, president; Elmer Stanley, vice-president; Robert Gayhart, secretary, and Bob McCombs, treasurer.

The first man that the league approached was Sea H. Ferguson. His response was: "I have a football team and a basketball team, why can't I have a bowling team?" So he gave orders to get shirts with all the trimmings. These were the first shirts donated on the alleys and furnished by outside interests.

Other business men were approached by the officials and seven others were secured. They were as follows: Birdwell's Chicken Shack, Sunshine Beauty School, Danny's Dreamland, Pee Wee's Cigar Store, Oscar's Loan Shop, the Indianapolis Recorder and C. M. C. Willis & Sons funeral directors. The Cotton Club went on to become one of the greatest teams in the country.

We had such men on our advisory committee as Alphonso Walker, Floyd Hampton, E. C. Harrell, Joe Williams, Thomas "Red" Kelly and Rooney Myers. The league started off with eight teams and finished with six.

First Team Records
There are a few around now who started with the organization. Thanks to old reliable Bob McCombs, I have the original prize-fund records. Here are the first prize-fund team winners with games won and lost: Birdwell's Chicken Shack, 57-27; Cotton Club, 56-28; Sunshine Beauty School, 50-34; Danny's Dreamland, 48-36; Oscar's Loan, 46-38; and Pee Wee's Cigar Store, 45-39.

The team members and averages: Tiney Baldwin, 180; Isaac Thurman, 177; Argus Edwards, 175; Robert Baugh, 173; Joe Barnett, 170; Herman Gurnell, 170; E. C. Harrell, 168; Red Kelly, 167; Bob McCombs, 166; Cooper Strickland, 165; Thomas Washington, 164; Bryan Brumfield, 163; Elmer Stanley, 162; Rooney Myers, 161; G. Russell, 161; DeWitte, 160; William Lockhart, 159; Paul Rutland, 156; B. Russ, 156; J. "Poppy" Poland.

(Concluded Next Week)

"STICKMAN MESA": Andres Mesa, all-round great baseball player will be seen in the Clowns lineup playing against the New York Black Yankees at Victory Field Saturday night. Mesa came to the local nine from the Havana La Palomas this season.

156; Albert Gurnell, 156; Floyd Hampton, 156; H. V. Gurnell, 155; Alphonso Walker, 150; Robert Gayhart, 147; George Mockabee, 147; Roy Baldwin, 146; Bob Brewer, Jr., 145; Roy Purdy, 141; Buster Bratton, 138; Harry Wilson, 134.

I wonder if present-day bowlers and fans can recognize some of the names and if these men are bowling now what are their averages. There were others bowling at that time, but the names you have seen are the ones that made bowling possible in Indianapolis.

Keen Rivalry Looms In East-West Game

CHICAGO — More than thirty-five thousand baseball fans from every section of the country are expected to see the 16th annual All-Star diamond classic in Comiskey Park Sunday, Aug. 22 when the West team led by Quincy Troupe, player-pilot of the American Giants, will clash with the East team headed by Jose Fernandez of the New York Cubans.

Last season Quincy Troupe then manager of the Cleveland Buckeyes won the pennant in the Negro American League but bowed to manager Fernandez of the New York Cubans in the world series. But this followed a victory over the East team in the annual All-Star classic.

Both squads for the annual classic include the best talent recruited from both the Negro American and Negro National Leagues. The game will start at 3:30 p. m. Chicago time and may prove either a pitchers' battle or a slugfest.

Both squads, each numbering 16 players, including the managers have both top-flight pitchers and batters. The West, however, has the greatest number of 300 or better hitters, including Art Wilson the Birmingham's Black Barons terrific shortstop, who, at the moment, is the Negro league's greatest slugger. He's batting a sizzling .405. The closest that the East can come with a player to match Wilson in his slugging prowess is "Buck" Leonard, a veteran of many East vs. West contests, who has a .379.

As for pitching, Manager Troupe will have two of the three pitchers back who helped him lead the West to a 5-2 triumph over the East in 1947 classic. They are Gentry Jessup of the American Giants and Chet Brewer of the Cleveland Buckeyes. Each of these boys worked three innings apiece, setting down the opposition with only three hits, while Dan Bankhead, now a Brooklyn farm hand, started last year's game and allowed no hits for the distance that he traveled and, as a result, was given credit for the victory.

Other West pitchers are Verdel Mathis of Memphis, James Lamarque of the Kansas City Monarchs, and Bill Powell of Birmingham.

the Negro American League's leading pitcher with a record of nine victories and two defeats.

The East, which now trails in this big classic, nine games to six will depend on a quintet of top-notch hurlers, headed by Pat Seantlebury of the New York Cubans, to bring it victory and stop the rushing West. Other hurlers are Robert Griffith of the New York Black Yankees; Rufus Lewis of the Newark Eagles; Robert Romby of the Baltimore Elite Giants, and Henry Miller of the Philadelphia Stars.

The probable lineups:

Johnny Moore's Three Blazers at Sunset Mon. Nite

BARRY FITZGERALD, as Detective Muldoon, of the New York Police Department is an interested spectator while Dorothy Hart comforts her semi-conscious fiancé, Howard Duff, who is suspected in the complicity of a crime Muldoon is investigating. This is a scene from "The Naked City", which starts Sunday at the Walker theatre.

THE ACTOR gets a report from his press agent, Ronald Colman, who plays the role of a distinguished actor in "A Double Life", billed to start Sunday at the Avenue.

JOHNNY MOORE'S Three Blazers are booked for one-niter at the Sunset Terrace Monday nite, August 23. Call the Sunset Cafe for table reservations.

FAMED TRIO RETURNS BY POPULAR DEMAND

The Three Blazers who are scheduled for a one nite engagement at the Sunset Terrace on Monday nite, August 23 are one of the "sleeper" hits of the entertainment world. Others may receive more publicity but this singing and instrumental group has performed prodigious feats, for example, waxing a disc called "Driftin' Blues" for a small record company, Exclusive, which sold more than three million copies. The Blazers play one-night engagements for more than two thousand dollars per evening and outgross the most famous big "name" bands.

The reason for their success is records. Not every one of their disks is a "Driftin' Blues" but the aggregate enjoys a huge mass coverage in juke boxes and record stores. When Johnny Moore and the Three Blazers comprised of Oscar Moore, guitar, Charles Brown, singer-piano and Eddie Williams, string bass, hits a town there are thousands who want to see and hear the group that provided such a delight on wax.

Interesting point: each of the group is a composer and they enjoy the benefit of recording numbers that are written for their special vocal and instrumental talents.

Mr. and Mrs. Public, Make a Note of this: If the old Stutz Motor Car Company, builders of the car that made good in a day, were in operation now it would probably be on top of the heap of fine cars. The Stutz was so far ahead of its day with the Black Hawk, Cow Head, etc. that it could not be appreciated. Wonder whatever happened to the main stockholders and officials of the Stutz? They ought to get together again.

The most difficult thing to find these days is a person who admits that he is a Republican after the election. Most all of the people who want "privileges" and certain rights nowadays are harping on the fact that they are now and have been good strong Democrats. But I happen to have a long list of names of people to whom I went many months ago seeking contributions for the campaign fund. These people were almost insulting.

They said that the Democrats did not have a chance to win and that even if the Demos did win they would not care, because they were not politicians anyway. Now these people who had a sudden and temporary lapse of memory. These are the people who make me sick enough to vomit. People who sit around and wait for some winning horse to ride. They are much worse than a Republican. You at least know that a Republican is what he is. These make-believe Democrats are political hypocrites. They belong to no particular party, but want to benefit at the expense at both parties. Parties don't make people anyway. People, their character, their make-up, make people. Take for instance Dale Brown, head of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles. I saw more Negro girls working in his department at the Statehouse than I ever have seen in any other department any place. You might call this politics but it's politics with a touch of fairness and decency attached to it. He is a Republican. As a Democrat, I salute this man whose statesmanship far overshadows his politics. I keep thinking about the names of those people who turned their backs on the Democrat party only a few months ago and now want to reap the harvest. There are too many private clubs, too many wrong people who don't deserve them. And more are cropping up hourly. Something should be done about it, and I believe that it will be if the right people know about it. I think it's about time they knew about it. Let's look into it.

Doris Stokes, the pianist, is doing such a good job at the ofay cafe where she works nightly until she often has post-working hour engagements for private parties. Robert LaMarr, the bass man in the band, helps her out.

If musicians just must revive old numbers, why don't they take the spite out on Ellington's "Black and Tan Fantasy," Ellington's "Caravan," Lunceford's "Rhythm Is Our Business" and also his "This Is My Last Affair" . . . Can't beat em. . .

At Henri's Henry Vance, the proprietor who specializes in vocalizing "Stardust" and "Trees," has immortalized local entertainers who have passed on. John Hardrick, the artist, has done oils of Simp Green, the dancer-singer; Orville Jones of the original Ink Spots; Trevor Bacon, "When the Lights Go On Again All Over The World," and James Baskette, the Hollywood special Oscar award winner. All of the men have been "oiled" and hung on the walls of the beautiful cafe. It is a great tribute to the people of the theatrical world from this city. Others will appear.

Police report: Squad car 10 go to the Rock House, rear of 500 block Indiana avenue, report of a man sick. Arrived there later with an ambulance on the way. Found patient to be suffering from a stomach-ache, probably ulcers. Refused to go to General Hospital unless his dog could accompany him in the ambulance. His comment was like this: "This dog is a better friend of mine than some of you people. He is honest and doesn't want to beat me out of something. Never do see him around talking about people and meddling in their business. I like this dog." A dog is man's best friend. . . Wondr whr is Gladys Moseley? Such looks and glamour shouldn't be able to stay hidden for so long, but she manages to do it anyway. . .

Dispatch to the editor: I was sent by the desk Lieut. from police headquarters at 3:10 p. m. Sunday afternoon on report of a man shot and killed. Arrived at 2942 Kenwood. Found report had been sent to headquarters in the wrong tense. A woman had been cut to death by her husband. Hundreds of people were there. I can't see how they got there so fast. Will give story in detail in follow-up story. Had pictures made and was at police headquarters when murderer surrendered. . . Tandy, Opal . . . That is all. . .

"T-Men" Is Booked At Park Tuesday

Revealing for the first time the dangers in the work of Treasury Department agents, "T-Men," power-packed drama based on actual cases from the records of the Department, opens Tuesday at the PARK theater.

Featured in the prologue and epilogue of the Edward Small production, which is being released by Eagle Lion Films, is Elmer L. Irey, former head of the Intelligence Unit and chief of the Enforcement agencies of the Treasury Department. Irey is credited with the successful convictions of Bruno Hauptmann, Boss Pendergast, Nucky Johnson, Al Capone, Waxy Gordon and many other notorious criminals.

Starring Dennis O'Keefe, "T-Men" is based on a compilation of three actual cases from the files.

Joe, Cab, Lena, Bojangles to Sponsor Resort

MIAMI—(ANP)—Joe Louis, Cab Calloway, Bill Robinson and Lena Horne were named this week as sponsors of a new Negro resort near here by Dr. Von D. Mizell, Negro physician and newspaper owner of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

The site selected is south of the harbor channel at Port Everglades and at present can only be reached by boat. Negotiations hinge on the building of a bridge over the water. Final plans include the building of a hotel, clubhouse, and cabanas, as well as apartments and private homes.

The name of the proposed resort is still a matter of speculation.

FIRST NEGRO DISC JOCKEY FOR MIAMI

MIAMI—(ANP)—Miami's first Negro disc jockey went on the air last week over WINZ, a privately owned radio station whose wave lengths can be heard from Cuba to Canada. The program billed as the Bronze Voice is broadcast Monday through Saturday from 6:30 to 7:30 a.m. Station owners describe it as the "only colored program having as its chief purpose the uplifting of the Negro citizen."

Clarence McDaniels who fathered the idea conducts the broadcasts first aired his discs several months ago over WWPB sandwiching between them such guests as Billy Eckstein, Ray Robinson, Edward Brandford of Brandford's Models and Charles North, local editor and columnist. WWPB, an independent station cut him off after he had dared to introduce a news item telling of a Ku Klux Klan cross burning in the Negro section.

According to McDaniels, a station executive told him, "For your own personal safety and for the good of the Negro race in the greater Miami area as of today you're off. We can't do our laundry on the air."

"SUPERMAN" ON SCREEN THURS., FRI., and SAT.

Barry Fitzgerald wears the shield of a New York Police Detective in the late Mark Hellinger's final production, "The Naked City." The new picture, a Universal-International release, comes on Sunday to the WALKER theater.

The lovable Irishman who won the heart of the nation and an Academy Award in "Going My Way", will, for the first time in his acting career, portray a policeman.

For two and a half months during the filming of "The Naked City" Barry Fitzgerald lived in New York City where most of the picture was made. The star worked with police department officials, studying them and their procedure of operation.

Bernie Fields' Orchestra at Sunset Sunday Nite

THE NATIONALLY KNOWN blues singer — T-Bone Walker will appear in person at the Sunset Terrace Thursday nite, August 26. Make table reservations early at the Sunset Cafe.

Originator of "Flying Home" Is Rated As Tops on Sax, Clarinet

ONE OF THE greatest Be Bop bands in the country today is Bernie Fields and his orchestra — originators of "Flying Home" and formerly with Lionel Hampton. Fields, styled the "Bad Man" of the sax and clarinet will do a one nite stand at the Sunset Terrace Sunday nite, August 29th.

This will mark the first appearance of the aggregation in these parts in several months, and judging from the advance sales of tickets a large crowd is expected to greet the popular maestro when he hits the deck at the popular dancery Sunday nite.

Advance tickets are now on sale at $1.25. Admission at the door is $1.60. Make table reservations now in person at the Sunset Cafe.

"Queer" money obtained by Treasury Agent Dennis O'Keefe is questioned by John Wangraf and William Malter, members of a nationwide counterfeiting ring the Treasury Department is chasing, in this scene from "T-Men," which is due Tuesday at the Park theater.

Nellie Lutcher In New York

HOLLYWOOD, California, August 11. Nellie Lutcher, following several successful engagements here on the coast, boarded the Chief last Sunday for New York City where important engagements will keep her active until late in the fall. Following dates at the Biltmore Hotel in Wildwood, New Jersey, and at Ciro's in Philadelphia, the "real gone gal" will open at the Apollo Theater in New York for one week and then will return to Cafe Society Downtown for ten weeks.

The last time Nellie appeared at Cafe Society she had just begun to cause excitement in the music business. It has been a little more than a year that her first records turned the entertainment world upside down and this time she will go in at ten times her original salary.

THAT "BAD MAN" of the sax and clarinet, Bernie Fields — brings his celebrated dance band to the Sunset Terrace Sun. nite, August 29. Make table reservations in person at the Sunset Cafe.

To Cast for New "Blackbirds"

NEW YORK (ANP)—Lew Leslie soon will be casting for "Blackbirds of 1948." The fourth edition of the revue he made famous in the '30's is being written now with new skits and music by new writers and authors. Nothing definite has been revealed other than the writers are at work for Leslie and he hopes to have his show on Broadway this fall. At one time, his revues were the most successful and spectacular Negro revues presented — and many colored artists were either starred or got their start with the canny showman.

Ivie Anderson - Marque Neal Suit Gives Her $15,000; House to Hubby

LOS ANGELES (ANP) — Ivie Anderson, popular songstress and one-time member of the Duke Ellington aggregation, reached a property settlement in the annulment action with her husband, Marque Neal, last week. According to the terms of the settlement, Neal is to give Mrs. Anderson $15,000 in return for complete possession of the Nealander Apartment house, ownership of which was held jointly by the two. According to Neal's attorney, Crispus A. Wright, Mrs. Anderson will be allowed to take the annulment by default on the grounds that she was not divorced from her previous husband when she married Neal.

Radio Station WXLW Opens Studios Here

Indianapolis had a new radio station this week as Station WXLW went on the air Wednesday with an announced policy of stressing in its programs "music, music, music."

The independent station conducts AM operations every day until sunset "on the standard broadcast band with 1,000 watts at the very top of the dial, 1590 kc." according to its sponsors. Meanwhile its "twin" station, WXLW-FM, carries on FM operations "at 94.7 mc on the FM band or Channel 234." The FM broadcasting is continued daily until 11 p. m.

In the beginning both stations will carry the same programs, the sponsors declared.

Studios are at 30th street and Kessler boulevard, in the building erected by the P. R. Mallory Co. during the war for television broadcasting. Transmitters and towers for both AM and FM operations are at this location, while business offices are at the Indianapolis Athletic Club.

The stations are operated by Radio Indianapolis, Inc., of which Conrad Ruckelshaus is president.

Long programs of various types of music—with the exception of "loud drum-beating jive" and "shouting mountain singers"—will feature the presentations of WXLW and its FM counterpart, according to announcement. A quarter-hour newscast will be presented every three hours.

Local sports will be stressed with play-by-play descriptions of high school and Butler University athletic events—football, basketball, track and swimming. Local news will also be reported.

At Florida Camp
In Spring, Report

BROOKLYN (NPA) — The Brooklyn Dodgers definitely will train in Florida next season, Branch Rickey, the club prexy, disclosed in a pre-game conference Monday night, Aug. 9.

The training site probably will be Vero Beach where a permanent camp was pitched last spring.

"The Dominican Republic is out," said Rickey. "There are some things that still have to be arranged at Vero Beach. But our site will be somewhere in Florida. I can promise you that much."

Last year Vero Beach was used by the Dodgers for only a few days, the East Coast camp having been used principally by Brooklyn farm clubs. It is probable that Montreal and St. Paul will share the site with the Dodgers.

Trotters Beat Hawaiians in Charity Game

There was very little to "cheer" in the charity double header split between the Harlem Globetrotters and the Honolulu Hawaiians at Victory Field Sunday afternoon.

Presented as a stellar attraction for the benefit of The Recorder's Christmas Cheer Fund, the twin bill drew only a disappointing huddle of only 1,051 fans and civic boosters. As a consequence there will be very little cash from this source to bring cheer to the city's needy children and families this Christmas.

The fans found little to cheer in the 7 to 1 victory of the Globetrotters in the first game and the edge of 3 to 1 by the Hawaiians in the 7-innings nightcap. Some of the fans conjectured that the weariness of long jumps by the busses the night before had robbed the players of both teams of the dash and hustle advance notices indicated they possessed.

Women Golfers Enter Chicago's
Top Tournament

CHICAGO (ANP) — Mrs. Ann Gregory, one of the two colored women who participated in the world famous Tam O'Shanter All American golf tournament last week, is one of the noted golfers registered in the tournament sponsored by the Chicago Women's Golf club this week.

The Chicago women sponsored the 11th Midwest and 4th Walter Speedy Memorial tournaments for both men and women held at the Wayside Country golf club, Aug. 13-14.

The other Negro woman taking part in the All American was Mary Brown of Erie, Pa. Mrs. Gregory who is from Gary, Ind., was invited to compete personally by George S. Mays, owner of the Tam O'Shanter Country club and sponsor of the tournament.

Of 40 entries, only 12 women with scores 79 to 92, qualified for the final. Mary Brown, well known for her long drives, had "golfer's nerves" and failed to qualify, but Mrs. Gregory qualified with a 92.

Her scores were 96, then 99, then 92 and finally 95. The course proved especially difficult for these two women golfers because of its long fairways, difficult sand traps, wide water "holes" and other hazards which are so different from the usual daily fee courses that they play.

has a good jump on his nearest rival in total bases, having 171 to his credit.

Piper Davis of Birmingham and Harry Thompson of Kansas City complete the first five with marks of 370 and 363 respectively, while Thompson has also proved himself fleetest afoot in the league with 19 stolen bases. Three players are tied with 8 triples apiece, while Neil Robinson of Memphis is the leading double clouter with 22.

With a mark of 8 wins and two losses, Alonzo Perry of Birmingham is still best in the pitching department.

U. S. LABOR DEPARTMENT
DRAFTS FEPC RULE
WASHINGTON (ANP) — An anti-discrimination directive in compliance with President Truman's recent executive order is being drafted by the U. S. Department of Labor, acting Secy. John W. Gibson announced this week.

He said that he hopes to make his department the first federal agency to comply with the President's executive order which called for the end of racial discrimination in federal employment.

ARMY MAN STARS IN FLANNER HOUSE TRACK, FIELD MEET

Indianapolis had its own "little Olympics" at the Crispus Attucks track Saturday as Pvt. Bill Anderson of Fort Knox, son of famed Eddie "Rochester" Anderson, gave two sterling performances in the annual Flanner House track meet.

The Third Armored Group athlete, who recently defeated Harrison Dillard in the 110-meter hurdles, flashed to a sizzling 13-second mark in the 110-yard high before Mayor Al Feeney and several hundred other fans.

The fleet Anderson, one of the nation's top cinder stars, also took the 100-yard dash in a brilliant .09.9 over a slow track. A fourth in the high jump gave him a 12-point total and individual scoring honors for the day.

Distance King Johnny Stayton of Anderson High School, committing treason by running for the Muncie Jaycee club, captured the mile and half-mile events. Attacks partisans got a nostalgic thrill as ex-Tiger Pete Ovelton finished second in the 880. He was carrying the PAL Clubs' colors.

Bryant Cops High Jump
Another former Tiger, lanky Lively Bryant, showed surprising form by winning the high jump at 6' 1". In the process he defeated Fort Knox's Bill Willis, one of the nation's premier leapers. The perennial favorite Orville Williams was third.

The Muncie Jaycee team easily won the meet, with 82½ points to 47½ for Fort Knox. Other leading scores included PAL Clubs, 30, game will start at 1:30 p. m.

North Side Rockets 29½ and Muncie YMCA 24½.

The PAL Clubs had it all their own way in the junior division, rolling up 110 markers to 38 for the second-place Muncie YMCA. Cannady, Sowell, Knox, Baxter, Campbell and Cook led the victors' parade.

Other individuals who figured in the senior results included Billy Taylor of Muncie YMCA, running second to Anderson in the high hurdles; Charles Hilton of the same squad, who won the 220 and finished second in the century; Edwards of Muncie YMCA, tied for first in the low hurdles; Fred Randall of Muncie Jaycees, who took the 440, and the PAL Clubs four-some of Kelley, O. Williams, Cross and Ovelton, victors in the 1,312-yard relay over the odd-distance track.
